

Centreville Historic Tax Credit Workshop

Save the Date!

What: Maryland historic preservation tax credits

When: 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 18

Where: Commissioner's Meeting Room, 107 N Liberty St., Centreville

Why: Learn how to access state funds dedicated to preserving historic structures and rebuilding the best of Maryland communities

Want to learn more about the Maryland Sustainable Communities Tax Credit program? While you may know that the program offers state financial incentives for rehabilitating historic buildings, you may not realize that the Maryland General Assembly expanded it to help owners of small businesses in designated Sustainable Communities, such as Centreville, repair and improve their historic commercial structures.

Maryland Department of Planning staff is working to inform Marylanders about the expansion of the tax credit and how to apply. Please attend to learn valuable information about how to qualify for tax credits.
